GUEST INSTRUCTORS

LISA HEWITT

Music specialist at Westbrooke Elementary School in Orange County, Florida. She holds a BME from Stetson University/DeLand, FL. Her education also includes post-Level III Orff Schulwerk Teacher Education, and World Drumming Level I. Lisa has attended the International Summer Courses at the Orff Institute in Salzburg, Austria in 2018 and Spain Orff in Madrid, Spain in 2019. Her responsibilities with the American Orff-Schulwerk Association (AOSA) include attending the annual International Orff Forum Conference in Salzburg where she presented this past summer. Lisa organized and implemented the first All-State Orff Ensemble in the nation as the All-State Orff Coordinator for the Florida Music Education Association in 2016. She has presented in several states and at the AOSA national conference in Denver. In addition to conducting several Orff All County ensembles, Lisa was the first All-State Orff clinician for Idaho Music Education Association in January 2020. She has served as president of the Central Florida Orff Chapter, Region IV representative on the AOSA National Board of Trustees, and currently serves on the AOSA Executive Committee as president, 2019-2021.

ROSEMARY PILONERO

Rosemary taught music for 12 years in Ramsey, New Jersey, where her job included a variety of roles: fifth grade beginning band director, elementary general music teacher, middle school chorus accompanist, and assistant director of the high school marching band. She has earned two music education degrees - Bachelor's Degree from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst and Master's Degree from Montclair State University in New Jersey. In 2009 and 2018, she was selected Teacher of the Year at her school. Mrs. Pilonero completed her Orff Certification at Stetson University in DeLand and later attended an Orff Master Class with Jay Broeker. She has been an active member of the Central Florida Orff Chapter, having served as Treasurer and assistant course director/West Music contact. She has been a clinician for Orff All-County ensembles in Orange and Seminole counties. Rosemary remains an active servant leader as a Regional Representative on the American Orff-Schulwerk Association National Board of Trustees, Immediate Past-President of the Florida Elementary Music Educators' Association, and Elementary Clinics Chair of the Florida Music Education Association Conference Planning Committee. She lives in Wildwood with her husband, Mark, and their dogs, Bella and Daisy.
